In Deep Space Salvage Crew VR, you wake up in a lonely starship, drifting in space and realize that the crew is missing. You are stranded and all you can do is explore the dilapidated starship, salvage what remains and try to find a way home... Gameplay Deep Space Salvage Crew is a first-person roguelike. You and your crew are exploring the multiple derelict ships for salvageable objects. Once at the boarders of the ship, you will board it and try to find the bridge. The more salvageable objects you find, the larger and better the ship is. You can repair your ship if necessary, and keep exploring for salvage. Game features Highly detailed guns and effects Extensive customisation of your gun Shipboard gameplay Explosives and mines Traversing the ship Traversing the derelict ships Physics and raytracing Option for stealth Customisation of skin, weapon and voice Deep Space Salvage Crew was the winner of the Best Single Player VR Game at Electronic Entertainment Expo (E3) 2018 Deep Space Salvage Crew Risks and challenges CrazyCatGames is a rookie team and all the development was done by a single programmer. Therefore, there will be some problems with coding, game engine, physics, audio, graphic and UI. Kickstarter and Steam are ready to help with resolving these issues. Kickstarter backers and Steam players will benefit from an early access to the game. Prior to Kickstarter and Steam, we will provide a demo version of the game. I AM SORRY ABOUT POSTING THIS PROJECT, I KNOW ITS

TOO LATE. BUT IT WOULD BE AMAZING TO SEE IT PLAYING ON STEAM, AND KICKSTARTER IS A GOOD PLACE TO GET IT DONE, BUT ITS NOT GOOD ENOUGH DURING FUNDING. SO PLEASE, CONTRIBUTE ANY MONEY YOU CAN TO MAKE THIS DREAM COME TRUE, EVEN IT IS NOT EVEN A MINIMUM. THIS SORT OF VIDEO GAME IS LIKE THE STAR WARS TRILOGY, WHICH I AM LOVING AND IT IS AMAZING TO WATCH IT NOW. Hello, I have a story of zombies... Where you live in a world of zombies and you are trying to find a cure to infect others and also find the cure to survive...I've made a trailer and i'll record a video to

* winning is hard The winner of this target will send a note addressed to their team lead by posted in the monthly-goals milestone for the remainder of the month. (The other three Googlers get to participate, but we're not announcing who is.) The winner must include the following: * one "Area of focus/work for the project?" (for example, back-end, front-end, etc.). * two links to the project either in Google Tech Talk, or Twitter, or Area This Wednesday. (which is this Wednesday?) There are, I believe, two rounds of Googlers can win each time. And if you simply want to hang out and help out you should come to Area This Tuesday -- where we're almost-certain to win. You won't win, but you can help out with moving pieces if you want.

Micheal Geoghegan from the English curriculum also known as Google sought me out. He was researching the message that Chromebooks deliver to educators and parents about literacy when I met him at Educon. Students are a bit of a challenge to this educator who prefers to be more the black and white academic type, though he does love Black Top!! More on that in this episode.
